COUNTY CRIME IN '54 ABOUT EVEN WITH '53

Crime in Adams County continued during 1954 on a level with 1953 according to the annual judicial crime statistics report made by the clerk of courts to the state Department of Welfare.

The 1954 report, completed to day, shows 234 criminal cases were before the court during the year. That is only one more than the 233 listed for 1953. But it does show a continuation of the increase over the prior four years. In 1952 there were 176 criminal cases before the court; in 1951, 185; in 1950, 191 and in 1949, 217. There was a slight decline in the number of non-support cases in 1954, and an increase in some other categories in comparison to 1953. Fifty-five men were brought before the court for failing to support families. In 1953 there were 57 such cases. Those figures compare to 40 in 1952, 32 in 1951, 52 in 1950 and 52 in 1949.

More Drunk Drivers
The number of persons accused of driving while intoxicated showed an increase, over both last year and the prior four years. Thirty-four were accused in 1954 of driving while under the influence as compared to 25 in 1953, 17 in 1952, 20 in 1951, 12 in 1950 and 15 in 1949.

Violations of other motor vehicle laws also showed an increase, 44 in the last 12 months compared to 36 in 1952 and 22 in 1951.

But there were only eight cases of burglary before the court last year, compared to 20 in 1953. There were nine cases of larceny compared to 12 the prior year and 16 in 1952.

And there were 20 morals charges last year compared to 14 in 1952.

State Police Push Probe Of Holdup

State police this morning continued their search for the masked bandit who robbed the Sander's Store on Keckler's Hill at gun point Friday morning.

There were few clues other than that the robber was stockily built and escaped in a "red" car. The bandit apparently was wearing an orange bag as a mask when he walked into the store two miles north of here at about 8:30 o'clock Friday morning. When one of the four brothers, Joseph E. Sanders, came out of the basement where he was stocking the furnace, the bandit forced him at gunpoint to return to the basement, and then left with approximately $100 from the cash register.

CANNING PLANTS ARE KEPT BUSY ALL THRU YEAR

Many people often think that mid-winter on the farm is a time when the farmer sits by the stove and whittles a stick while his wife keeps busy with housework and the family. And that the large canning plants which employ thousands in the long canning season are just big, empty, quiet buildings all winter.

But, on both subjects as an inquiring reporter quickly discovered, nothing could be further from the truth. A business-minded farmer with a modern mechanical equipment and a staff of skilled mechanics and workmen are busy with maintenance on many machines, new and more efficient operating schedules, new and more productive schedules and routines. American industry has to produce to meet competition. Perhaps a political office-holder in a Washington bureau can just perform his routine daily tasks and get by. But an American business man who runs his business that way would soon be out of business.

Busy All Winter
The canning plants are busy places all winter. At the C. H. Musselman Company plant in Biglerville, Clair Shillito, production manager, and a staff of skilled mechanics and workmen are busy with maintenance on many machines, new and more efficient operating schedules, new and more productive schedules and routines. American industry has to produce to meet competition. Perhaps a political office-holder in a Washington bureau can just perform his routine daily tasks and get by. But an American business man who runs his business that way would soon be out of business.

A call to serve as pastor of Bethlehem Lutheran Church at Green and Cumberland Sts., Harrisburg, has been accepted by the Rev. Robert L. Lang Jr., a native of Middletown, was announced Friday by Fred B. Huston, president of the church council at Bethlehem Lutheran.

Going there from Juniata on April 15, the Rev. Mr. Lang will preach his first sermon as pastor of Bethlehem Lutheran Church on Sunday April 17, Huston said. The Langs, who have two children, Kathie and Connie, will occupy the parsonage at 2533 N. Second St., Harrisburg.

J. A. "Gus" Tawney, 99, Says He Always Worked Hard; Saw Lincoln; Reads Times Daily

J. A. "Gus" Tawney, who quietly marked his 99th birthday anniversary today, doesn't quite know how he got so far beyond the Biblical there score years and ten but he recommends hard work as a means to longevity.

"I've always worked hard," he recalled in a conversation Friday afternoon with a reporter for The Gettysburg Times. "I started when I was seven years old helping my father build the stone wall round the National Cemetery. And I've always worked hard. I never was one to loaf around."

"I never smoked and I never drank—and I've always tried to live up to the Ten Commandments," he added.

Mr. Tawney has many memories and he lives a great deal in the past. Failing eyesight limits his daily reading to The Gettysburg Times and faulty hearing prevents radio entertainment from being attractive to him.

Saw President Lincoln
But his memories go back to November, 1863, when as a boy of seven years he saw President Abraham Lincoln in Gettysburg's square and he and his chums, standing on a corner of the square, received pats on the head as the President walked by. He did not hear the President deliver his dedicatory address in the National Cemetery.

One of the high spots of this 99th birthday is the fact that President Eisenhower sent him a message of congratulations and Mr. Tawney is proud to point out he has been a lifelong Republican and voted for Ike when he was elected President.

Mr. Tawney was born February 19, 1856, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Zephaniah Tawney. His father was a mason and a Civil War veteran. At the age of 16, Mr. Tawney started to learn the baking business and spent 25 years in it. When he and Mrs. Tawney, who died in June, 1953, were married December 6, 1877, in Littlestown, Mr. Tawney was operating a bakery in Emmitsburg and they began their married life there. Then he bought a bakery in Gettysburg and moved back to this community. He used to say: "We gave them more bread than for a

Russia Calls For Arms Freeze, Destruction Of All A-Weapons

By STANLEY JOHNSON
MOSCOW (AP) — Reiterating her 9-year-old stand on arms questions, the Soviet Union has called for a world freeze on armaments and the immediate destruction of all atomic and hydrogen weapons.

The Russian declaration was issued last night, a week before the scheduled reopening of disarmament discussions in London by a United Nations subcommittee. It announced that Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko and Jacob Malik, Russian ambassador to London, would represent the Soviet Union in the talks.

Insisting that Western powers were intensifying the arms race and production of atomic weapons by pushing for the rearmament of Western Germany, the statement said:

nickel than you get now for 15 cents."

Farmed 25 Years
At 41 he turned to farming, an occupation that long had attracted him, and he was a farmer for the next quarter century, operating a large farm in the Virginia Mills section.

At the age of 56 he and Mrs. Tawney returned to Gettysburg and he began a 20-year tour of duty as superintendent of streets here. A decade ago he retired and then devoted his time to gardening and odd jobs about the home. A few years ago he had to give up manual labor and be content with reading, listening to the radio and chatting with members of his family and friends.

In December, 1952, he and Mrs. Tawney were guests of honor at a 75th wedding anniversary observance held here by their two daughters, Mrs. Norman Wolf and Mrs. Carrie Pretz, with the five grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren all present. It was in the following June that Mrs. Tawney died.

No special celebration was planned for Mr. Tawney today. He is confined to bed from the effects of an attack of grip last week. He is residing at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Gilbert along the Herr's Ridge Rd., Gettysburg R. 3.

SOME PRICES SHOW DECLINE AT MART TODAY

Egg prices continued "strong" at the Farmers Market this morning. There were some declines in other food prices, however.

While the best apples continued at a top of $2.50 a bushel, there were some "seconds" available at lower prices as blemishes began to show from long storage.

Ham was $1 a pound at most stands, but there was some being sold as low as 50 cents a pound—and quality made the difference in the price.

Pork Prices Ease
Pork was abundant again today, and prices seemed to be "softening," for less than top quality.

In general prices were: scrapie, 22 cents a pound; tenderloin, $1.10 a pound; bacon, 50 cents a pound; backbone, 50 cents a pound; ribs, 45 cents a pound; sausage, 65 cents a pound; shoulder, 60 to 65 cents a pound; pudding, 40 cents a pound; liver, 50 cents a pound; hog maws, 60 cents apiece.

Lard prices were reduced from 22 to 20 cents a pound. Capons were 60 cents a pound, chicken continued at 55 cents a pound; potatoes were 25 cents a quarter peck, 45 cents a half peck; apple butter, 45 cents a jar; potato salad, 25 cents a pint; cottage cheese, 20 cents a pint; jellies, 30 to 25 cents a jar; mixed pickle, 25 cents a jar; cookies, 25 cents a dozen; cup cheese, 30 cents a pint; butter, 70 cents a pound; cup cakes, 5 cents apiece; pies, 40 and 45 cents apiece.

A special program of playlets and songs will be presented Sunday evening at 7 o'clock by Christ's Crusaders at the Iron Springs Brethren in Christ Church. The public is invited to the program.

Shows Movie Of
Hit And Run Driver

DENVER (AP) — Earl E. Lippert had some convincing evidence when he contended in Superior Court that fellow motorist George J. Karch, 33, left the scene after their cars collided.

While Judge Mitchell B. Johns looked on, Lippert showed movie film he had taken immediately after the accident. It showed Karch standing beside the damaged vehicle, shaking his head and walking away from the scene. Johns fined Karch $150.

ROBLES ELUDES
POLICE DRAGNET
AND GETS GUNS

NEW YORK (AP)—Two friends of elusive August Robles were being held in high bail today as a "safety" precaution while police hunted the heavily-armed ex-convict believed to be the trigger man in a Brooklyn ride-slapping.

The 41-year-old Robles—quoted as saying "the only way they'll take me is dead"—disarmed three detectives yesterday and took their guns, exchanged gunfire with other police, and eluded a dragnet around a huge Harlem housing project.

More than 125 detectives and plainclothesmen scoured Harlem last night and early today, with city bridges and tunnels being closely watched.

Wanted In Slaying

Police want Robles in the slaying of ex-convict Joseph Aronowitz, 40, found shot to death in his parked car Tuesday, the day before he was to go to Baltimore as a codefendant in an attempted armed robbery trial.

Aronowitz had been free in $10,000 bail. He and Joseph Sampson, 31, reportedly were ready to testify against alleged accomplices in a trial with overtones of gambling and possible police connivance.

Sampson now is in a Baltimore jail.

Slight Hope For Lost Navy Bomber

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP)—Hope was slight today as scores of search planes continued to seek a Navy patrol bomber and the 11 men it carried when it disappeared only a few miles from here Thursday night.

The aerial hunt was concentrated on surrounding mountains and the icy waters of Cook Inlet where a day-long check by 55 search planes had failed to disclose any trace of the twin-engine P2V Neptune yesterday.

CHOOSING TEAM
FOR MEXICO CITY

NEW YORK (AP)—After tonight's final exam in the AAU indoor championships, a 30-man U.S. track and field team will be picked to compete in the Pan-American games at Mexico City next month. And you probably could name about half of them without waiting for the title meet.

No matter what happens when Wes Santee and Fred Dwyer hook up with Denmark's Gunnar Nielsen in the mile, probably for the last time this season, it's a cinch both will be chosen for the Pan-American squad.

So will such standouts of the indoor season as Mal Whitfield, Harrison Dillard, Horace Ashenfelter, Bob Richards and Parry O'Brien. Actually the AAU meet won't have too much bearing on the selections. In most cases, it will be just a test of fitness for stars who earned their places in outdoor competition. A good many others won't even get this final test because there's no indoor counterpart of the events in which they shine.

CANNING PLANTS

have to be on our toes or competitors will produce quality products at a lower price and our warehouses would be full of unwanted products. The winter is a busy time for us. When the fruit pours in we must be ready to roll, be ready for workers and the crop."

Sales And Service
Canners have a year-round sales and service business for their customers. A lot of cars are parked outside the office and plant buildings every working day. A good sized staff uses large and comfortable offices. Fieldmen and salesmen, for both growers on one hand and the wholesale and retail trade, come and go. Scores of clerks, bookkeepers, accountants, warehouse people keep the thousands of books and records, get out bills to customers, handle shipping by a large truck fleet and by railroad. Even purchasing for large plants is the business of a separate department, executives and staff who interview hundreds of salesmen, fill needs by purchase from every type of supplier from steel plants to stationery.

Much Office Work
Taxes and government records require a tremendous amount of work and detail for a good sized staff dealing with just insurance, a pension system for thousands for full-time and part-time workers, social security, payroll taxes and the scores of government and state records required by law.

Shillito summed it up by saying, "We are a busy place the year round. There is a lot more to running a processing plant these days than you would think. A lot more than just a load of good apples at one end and a truckload of apple sauce at the other. And there are plenty of business and trading problems to boot. Even our growers hardly realize the detail that goes into a modern full scale industrial and business operation that produces a large payroll volume for the county."

Big Gas Main Catches Fire Near Hampton: An explosion and fire of a natural gas main at the Hampton regulator station Saturday morning left a number of Adams County communities without gas service over the weekend.

This morning temporary repairs were completed enabling service to be resumed to Table Rock, Hampton, Abbottstown, East Berlin, New Oxford, and the rural areas of Abbottstown and New Oxford, all of which were affected.

Workers were summoned from Washington, Pa., Pittsburgh, Cumberland, Md., Wheeling, W. Va., and York to effect the repairs.

No cause for the explosion and fire has been determined. Flames which sometimes shot as high as 75 and 80 feet in the air were finally brought under control by cutting the main line supply at east and west points.

Today's Talk

THE IMPORTANT POTENTIAL

How often we read the story of some man or woman who has made an outstanding success, but who in youth showed no promise of this — yet the potential was there! Who of the early associates of Abraham Lincoln ever dreamed that some day he would become the ruler of the country which is today the most powerful one on earth?

Lincoln was tall, ungainly, and without education but the potential of greatness was there. It only took a few great events, like the Cooper Union speech and he debates with Douglass, to reveal a unique personality and a mind that God surely must have educated. To read his speeches today is to read compositions that were touched with genius.

A city can make no greater investment than to invest in its youth. Its boys' clubs, its girls' clubs, and its outdoor parks and playgrounds pay rich dividends in later life. From many a sordid slum have come leaders in our cities and states, as well as nation, that prove the evidence of potential growth cannot be hidden, but is sure to reveal itself sooner or later.

Where there is potential there are hope, risks worth taking, and that something which no man has yet been able to adequately appraise. A business man hires an employee not alone for what he considers him worth at the time, but what he will be worth years from then. I am informed that the president of General Motors got his job with that great concern by answering a want ad. The potential was there and so he grew and grew.

We can forgive, and overlook, a great deal in a person if we are convinced that he or she has capacity or potential. Many a valuable worker has been lost to many a business because this potential was not noted or discovered.

ASK POLICE TO HELP FIND GIRL

CATONSVILLE, Md. (AP) — The parents of 17-year-old Sonia Dian Knop Friday asked Baltimore County police to continue their search for the girl, missing since last Friday from the campus of Bucknell University at Lewisburg, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. William F. Knop said they still had not been able to determine where the girl is, although she called them Wednesday to tell them she had found a job and was not lonely. She refused to say where she was.

The Knops said it was not a long distance call and they believe Sonia Diane is in the Catonsville area.

Police here said Pennsylvania authorities had called off their search for the girl on the theory she was not in that state.

Sonia Diane checked off the Bucknell campus last Friday saying she was going to meet a friend at Towson, Md., another Baltimore suburb. She did not return for her freshman classes Monday.

FINE AND TWO SONS WILL DRAW STATE PENSIONS

By LEONARD A. UNGER

HARRISBURG (AP)—Ex-Gov. John S. Fine Friday was awarded a state pension of $468 a month for life. The 62-year-old former chief executive sacrificed $1,000 a month in retirement pay for the lower sum to make certain his two teenage motherless sons each receive $234 monthly for 20 years after his death.

At the same time, the state Employees' Retirement Board approved a host of other pensions for leading lights in the Fine regime ended by the inauguration of Democratic Gov. George M. Leader a month ago Friday.

Lifetime monthly pensions included $881.56 for Dr. Francis B. Haas, 71, who resigned as superintendent of public instruction after 48 years in commonwealth service, and $613.49 for Otto F. Messner, 60, who rounded out 40 years of state work as revenue secretary in the Fine administration.

W. S. Hagar, 63, long-time deputy agriculture secretary who was elevated to the secretaryship just a month before the Democrats took over, will get $512.17 a month. He served the state 32 years.

Secretary Is Pensioned
A $127.45 a month pension also went to Gene D. Smith, 47, former secretary of the commonwealth who had a total of 15 years on the state payroll.

Mrs. Eleanor G. Evans, 62, replaced as secretary of public assistance in the Democratic change-over, is assured $100 a month for four years of state service—all at cabinet rank.

Cabinet officers receive $15,000 a year in salary, a fact greatly enhancing retirement sums since the five best-salaried years are used in pension calculations.

Dr. Edward B. Logan, 57, who served nearly 20 years as budget secretary before being removed last month, is entitled to a monthly pension of $297.13.

Former Lt. Gov. Lloyd H. Wood, defeated Republican candidate for governor, was approved for monthly retirement pay at $195.09.

Defeat Wiped Pension

Ironically, Wood's election defeat gave him a higher retirement allowance. Under the law, a defeated candidate is considered to have been fired from state office and therefore eligible for an increased pension.

Wood was listed for 16 years of state service—four years at $15,000 each as lieutenant governor and 12 years in the Legislature at $1,500 a year.

Seven former lawmakers, most of them defeated for re-election last year, also received retirement allowances.

They include former Sens. A. H. Letzler, 71, (R-Clearfield), $90.20, 16 years in state service, and A. Evans Kephart, 49, (R-Philadelphia), $117.37, 26 years, and former Reps. Ellis C. Ferster, 65, (R-Snyder), $25.62, six years; Wrayburn B. Hall, 67, (R-Potter), $128.33, 25 years; Charles R. Reagan, 75, (R-Union), 16 years; Wilson L. Yeakel, 76, (R-Bucks), $118.47, 26 years; George A. Goodling, 58, (R-York), $44, 12 years.

William E. Habbyschaw, 63, long-time Republican chief clerk of the House until last month, was awarded $282.84 a month after 22 years on the state payroll.

10 Years Of Service

Other former high-ranking state officials who received pension awards were Charles H. Buckius, 62, highways department chief engineer who retired after 40 years of service, $580.69; George Gwilliam, 71, manager of the state Workmen's Compensation Fund, 19 years, $297.88.

J. R. Hoffert, 70, chief engineer of the Sanitary Water Board, 35 years, $453.35; N. A. Staples, 61, chief highway maintenance engineer, 31 years, $468.41; Dr. H. K. Petry, 59, superintendent of Harrisburg State Hospital, 33 years, $585.12; A. J. Caruso, 49, director of employment security, 16 years, $112.13; A. G. Burgoyne, deputy revenue secretary, 15 years, $200.56.

Additional applications for retirement by other state officials are on hand but won't be made public until after the board acts on them at its next meeting, probably in March.

Sons Are Beneficiaries

Fine, in seeking a special option for his retirement plan, specified that his beneficiaries are to be his two sons, Jack, 14, and Don, 12, now attending Valley Forge Military Academy.

The former governor lost his wife three months after taking office in January, 1951. His 25 years of credit for state service included, in addition to the four in the governor's chair, 21 years on the bench of the state Superior Court and the Luzerne County Common Pleas Court.

His plan was authorized under the retirement-law which says any special option must be certified by the board's actuary as equivalent to regular retirement arrangements and must be approved by the board itself.

The commonwealth pension system is operated on the basis of joint contributions — both by the employee and by the state. It is more generous than ordinary plans because the retirement fund is assured four per cent interest by law.

Veteran Editor Is 80 Years Old Friday

SOMERSET, Pa. (AP) — Henry Baker Reiley was 80 when he started his newspaper career as an apprentice typesetter. He worked 15 hours a day, seven days a week. Friday the founder and editor of the Somerset Daily American was observing his 80th birthday—and there's been little change in his work schedule.

He comes in mornings to peck out his daily two columns of editorials on the typewriter. Late in the evening visitors find him in the same swivel chair pecking through the day's flow of news.

Starting time now is 9 a.m., and it's often after midnight when he switches off the desk light. The elderly veteran's only concession to this seven-days-a-week routine is an afternoon walk in recent years with his grandchildren and a short nap after dinner.

MR. HAMMER MAKES WORLD NEWS IN RUSSIA

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Names make news, and right now Mr. Hammer is making world news.

So are George Little, Nick Beetle, George Bug, and Nicholas Scandal maker.

They've been plotting and feuding ever since old Mr. Steel died—a death that made big headlines in every front page in America.

Never heard of them? Of course you have. But not spelled that way. They are the English translations of the names of some top Soviet leaders — Molotov, Malenkov, Khrushchev, Zhukov, Bulganin and the late Joe Stalin.

Meaning Obscure

Most Russian names, like many well known American names, have a meaning, but the meaning is often less obscure.

Some names come from professions. Thus Miller in Russia is Melnikov, Smith is Kuznetsov. Instead of keeping up with the Joneses, your problem in Russia would be to match the income of the Ivanovs. Ivanov, meaning "son of John," is the most common family name in Russia, just as Ivan is the most common Christian name.

Many of the most interesting Russian names, however, are descriptive. Some are mildly humorous or downright satirical names given to serfs in the old days by the nobility who owned them. Examples: Bezgubov "Lipless" and Golopuppenko "Naked-Navel."

Hidden Identities

Some of the Russian revolutionary leaders adopted pseudonyms to hide their identity. This explains how Joe Stalin became "Mr. Steel," and Vyacheslav Molotov, minister of foreign affairs, became "Mr. Hammer."

Here are English equivalents for the names of some of the present Soviet hierarchy:

Nikita Khrushchev, Communist party boss—Nicholas Beetle; Nikolai Bulganin, the new Premier—Nicholas Scandalmaker.

Georgi Malenkov, the former Premier who resigned because he agreed the job was too big for him—George Little.

Defense Minister Georgi Zhukov—George Bug, or Beetle.

That sums up the situation, except to point out that if Henry Ford had been born in Russia he'd have had to get used to hearing himself called Genrikh Brodny.

Despondent Junior Commits Suicide

CLOSTER, N. J. (AP)—Police said 14-year-old Allan Silvers thought his junior high school classmates were laughing at him.

So he stayed home from school Thursday and hanged himself from a beam in the attic of his home.

His mother, Mrs. Minerva Silvers, who had left Allan in the house with a maid while she went to school apparently to explain his absence, cut down the body while the boy was still alive.

Police summoned to the scene tried in vain to revive him with artificial respiration.

Mrs. Silvers told police her son had been under the care of a psychiatrist and wanted to go to a private school because of his fears about his classmates.

He had barricaded the attic door with a board and fashioned a death noose with half-inch rope.

NEXT MOVE IN FORMOSA CRISIS IS UP TO REDS

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP) — The next move in the Formosa crisis is up to the Red Chinese. More and more American officials are coming around to the view that they may make it with military force.

The importance of what the Reds may do overshadows a rift between the United States and Britain over the Quemoy, Matsus and other coastal islands.

With British support, the United States has established a firm life in defense of Formosa. Beyond this, the United States has in effect said it will fight a Chinese Communist assault on any of the offshore islands if President Eisenhower decides the move is aimed at conquest of Formosa. The British, however, hold that Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalists should give up the offshore islands and pull back to Formosa.

Months Of Threats

In this situation, the Communists have to decide whether they will try to take over either the coastal islands or Formosa itself by military means or by diplomatic maneuver. Under present circumstances, if they try by military means in either case it seems certain they will confront at the least a limited war with the United States.

Several months ago the Chinese Reds began stepping up their threats to capture Formosa. They have increased the violence of propaganda against the United States.

Furthermore, diplomats here have heard, they have privately told Burmese and Indian leaders they intend to take Formosa this year and will be selling rice from Formosa by the year's end.

More Than Propaganda

These private boasts, coupled with the increasingly strong public stands, are regarded as going beyond normal propaganda in such a situation. In effect, the Chinese Communist leaders are nailing themselves to a program of force.

That has some top American officials worried. However, officials declared that Secretary of State Dulles meant exactly what he said in New York Wednesday night.

Dulles asserted that the free nations could not make concessions in the Far East to try to induce the Communists to be peaceful without gravely imperiling the confidence of the free peoples of Asia.

British officials are convinced that the Soviet Union is trying to use its influence to keep Red China from precipitating a big war in the Formosa area. The British themselves are using on the Chinese Reds all the persuasive arguments they can think of.

The Best Hope

But neither they nor American leaders have any confidence that the Reds will not engage in some kind of military action, although this country has indicated it would bargain on the coastal islands if the Reds were willing to renounce efforts to take Formosa by force.

The best hope seems to be that any move the Communists undertake will be designed initially as probing operations.

Field, Held Red Prisoner In Cellar Five Years, Says Poland Paid Him $50,000

By TOM OCHILTREE

LONDON (AP)—Hermann Field said today he spent five years imprisoned in a cellar in Communist Poland, and disclosed the Warsaw government has paid him $50,000 for wrongful arrest.

He insisted he is at a loss to explain the case of the "disappearing Fields," and said he was never a Communist or "an agent for anybody."

"I am not a Communist and never was one," he said. "Over the course of 20 years I have occasionally agreed with some of the policies for which the Communist party said it stood. For instance, I was very much opposed to the rise of Hitler and was opposed to the occupation of Czechoslovakia by German forces."

Four In Family Jailed

The 44-year-old Cleveland architect appeared at a London news conference 24 hours after his arrival from a rest period in Switzerland.

He said he still holds an American passport but has no plans to return there.

"I've lost my job in Cleveland," he explained. "Before pulling up stakes, I want to find myself a new position and a new home town."

His voice broke as he recounted the scene when he learned that he was to be free. Field said that once the Poles decided to release him they treated him with great kindness.

He said that at his insistence the Poles agreed to state he had been arrested on false charges, and they also paid the cost of his convalescence in Switzerland after he left Warsaw last fall.

"I was never subjected to physical mistreatment, but again and again they questioned me about my whole life," Field said.

Field said that during this period he learned nothing about his brother Noel, who had disappeared in 1949 in Prague, a few months before his own arrest.

Waynesboro Outscrapes GHS Quintet For 79-63 Verdict; Local Reserves Win 35-30

A smaller but much scrappier Waynesboro High School basketball team handed the Gettysburg High School cagers their 15th successive defeat here Friday evening 79-63 and dropped the Warriors into sole possession of the cellar in the South Penn League.

Superb foul tossing was one of the big factors in the triumph for the visitors who landed 33 of 42 with Carroll Hartle dropping in 18 of 21. In addition Hartle sank eight field goals to make him high man of the game with 34 points.

Hartle set a new league record of 91 foul conversions to erase the former mark of 87 set last year by Tom Cross of Waynesboro.

Locals Lose Lead
The Warriors set the pace through much of the first period and led 18-15 after 5:30 minutes. Waynesboro then ran up eight straight points before Dick Hise landed a goal and from then on out the Franklin Countians were on top. At the end of the period the score was 25-20.

Hartle and Joe Caron sparked Waynesboro to a 35-26 lead midway in the second quarter before Glenn Weishaar landed a goal and Bill Woods a pair of fouls. Hartle and Jim Every exchanged goals and the Indians left the court with a 41-32 margin after Caron hooped a foul and Hartle a goal.

Waynesboro built up a 50-36 lead in the first four minutes of the third frame before the Warriors erupted on a trio of fouls by Dick Hise and goals by Every and Woods. As the round ended Rolf Johnson converted two charity tosses to make the count 54-49 with the locals trailing.

GHS Makes Bid
Gettysburg threatened to overtake their opponents when they pulled to 61-57 after 2:30 of the last period but that was as close as they could get as Harry Pure's boys steadily pulled away from that point on, mostly due to 12 conversions in 14 foul tries by Hartle.

Every rimmed 16 points to top the Warriors with Woods contributing 12 and Dick Hise 11.

The Warriors reserves led all the way to avenge a previous setback at Waynesboro 35-30 in a hard fought preliminary game. Scoring was evenly distributed for the winners while Eden led Waynesboro with 15. The win boosted Gettysburg's mark to 8-10.

Next Tuesday the Warrior teams journey to Shippensburg.

Title As Stake In Game Tonight At Mt. St. Mary's

A big crowd is expected to pour into the Mt. St. Mary's College gymnasium tonight for the Mount-Loyola basketball game which will settle the 1955 Mason-Dixon Conference title.

Loyola, an 82-76 winner of the Mountaineers earlier at Baltimore, leads the conference with a 10-0 mark while the Emmitsburg outfit is in second place with a 13-1 log. Bands from both schools will be present and a special side-show is planned.

A feature of tonight's program will be the awarding of a trophy to the outstanding MSM performer in the game.

The preliminary game between the freshman teams will start at 6:45.

CHARLES BEATS NORKUS BUT HE'S NOT OLD "EZ"

By JACK HAND
NEW YORK (AP)—Charles isn't the fighter he used to be but he still is much too good for the likes of Norkus.

Slow and wild after a five-month layoff and two beatings by Rocky Marciano, the former heavyweight champion last night exposed Norkus as a crude but willing workman who was "in over his head."

After winning a unanimous decision in 10 rounds and dropping Norkus with a "sneak right" for an automatic eight count in the early seconds of the ninth, Charles said he was ready for anybody.

Ready For Anybody
Ezzy, now 33, has been sending no telegrams, circulating no petitions and writing no campaign letters but anybody who wants to fight Marciano will find him spilling for action.

That goes for Archie Moore, Nino Valdes, Don Cockell or anybody you can think of, according to Charles.

"I'm making no claims on any Marciano bout," said Charles. "I'm ready to take them as they come."

Harry Markson, director of boxing for the International Boxing club said he had March 18 and March 25 open at Madison Square Garden where $3,044 paid $17,230 to see last night's scrap.

Norkus Was Heavy
At 191½ pounds to Norkus' 195½, Charles was a bit heavy.

As usual, his left hook to body and head was his best punch until he hurt his hand.

If Charles hadn't been penalized in the sixth round for a low left hook, Norkus wouldn't have won a round on two official cards.

Counting that sixth for Norkus, Judge Joe Agnello scored it 9-1 and Referee Kessler 8-1-1. Judge Jack Gordon had it 8-2. The AP card also was 8-2, giving Norkus the first and sixth.

FAY CROCKER REAL THREAT
MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Thirteen months after she came to the United States "to compete against the best women golfers in the world," Fay Crocker is making a strong bid for a major victory over this country's finest professionals.

Halfway through the $5,000 (Serbin) Women's Open Tournament, the long-hitting native of Montevideo, Uruguay, held a commanding 3-stroke lead over her nearest competitor, Louise Suggs, the 1953 champion money winner from Sea Island, Ga.

Miss Crocker's 71 yesterday, coupled with her 74 in the opening round, gave her a 36-hole total of 145, three strokes under par for the course. Miss Suggs was even with par with a pair of 74s.

Patty Berg, Chicago veteran who jumped into the first-day lead with a 73, ran into a severe putting slump yesterday and her 76 dropped her into third place with 149.

New York Giants Add Another "1st"
NEW YORK (AP)—First in the National League, first in the World Series and first in all players signed was the proud boast of the world champion New York Giants today.

The Giants beat the other clubs to the wire by signing rookie Bob Lenson yesterday. He is a left-handed hitting outfielder, who slammed 64 home runs for Nashville last season while leading the Southern Assn. with a .345 average. No mention was made of his salary.

Pirate Pitcher Is Thankful To Dodgers
PITTSBURGH (AP)—Vern Thies, right hand pitcher for the Pittsburgh Pirates, can thank the Brooklyn Dodgers for sticking it out with the lowly Bucs last season.

This was about to be farmed out when the Dodgers came to town. It was on April 24 when Cal Hogue got into a jam against the Dodgers. Hogue filled the bases with Dodgers in the fifth inning and no one was out when Thies made his first appearance.

He promptly struck out Jackie Robinson and got Gil Hodges to hit into a double play.

Adams County Boys' League

A playoff game to break a tie for third place in the Adams County League between East Berlin and Biglerville will be required before the league playoffs which start next Thursday evening at Gettysburg College.

Tentative arrangements have been made to stage the game at Fairfield Monday evening at 8 o'clock. Definite arrangements will be made over the weekend.

Boiling Springs completed its season undefeated by over-coming a 15-10 first period deficit to crush East Berlin 58-39 on the Bubblers' floor Friday. It marked the 47th straight triumph in league action for the three-time champs.

Dasher again led the Bubblers with 20 tallies while Lanny Oberlander hooped 11 for the Indians.

Littlestown came from behind after trailing 16-13 in the first period to hand Biglerville a 62-52 jolt on the Thunderbolts' floor. Dean Selby ripped the cords for 24 points to lead the Bolts while Ronnie

3 Americans In Races At Moscow
MOSCOW (AP)—The world speed skating championships got under way today with 44 speedsters from 14 countries trying for titles in the two day competition. Included are three Americans—the first time since the end of World War II the Yanks have competed in Russia in sports.

Ken Henry of Chicago, Ken McDermott of Englewood Cliffs, N.J., and John Werker of Minneapolis, along with their coach, Richard Shearman of Jamestown, N.J., are here for the competition.

Henry, the Olympic 500 meter champion, is the man to beat. He has raced in Europe every year since 1948. The last time the Americans competed in the world championship was in Norway in 1952 when Henry won the 500 in 43.4.

G-BURG JUNIOR HI DRIBBLERS DROP 2 GAMES

The Gettysburg Junior High School dribblers lost a twin bill at Waynesboro Friday evening, the varsity bowing 38-14 while the reserves went down 31-14.

Gettysburg kept pace with its opponent fairly well in the first half and trailed 14-9 at half time. However, in the second half the Braves were held to but one field goal, that by Bob Staley in the final period.

Two regulars were missing from the Brave squad. Rex Baltzley is confined to his home due to the mumps while Jimmy Neth is nursing a leg laceration received in a sliding accident.

Hopewell led Waynesboro with 15 points while Kenny Keefe and Staley netted six and five for the locals.

In the preliminary game the Waynesboro reserves piled up a big 23-7 lead in the first half and then breezed through handily during the low scoring second half.

Shippensburg Junior High will come here for a double-header on Tuesday.

Cars Are Complex But Simple Solution Often Can Be Found To Annoying Ailments Of Autos

By FREDERICK C. RUSSELL

There's nothing harder on a car than a neighbor's new car.

Try Something Simple

Just because the modern car is highly complicated, containing upwards of 18,000 parts, is no reason to assume that every remedy for trouble necessarily involves deep thinking and hours of toil. Some of the most annoying ailments have recently been cured by remedies so simple owners could hardly believe their eyes.

Outstanding example was a recent case in which a mere change of gasoline eliminates all engine roughness and conditions that had been diagnosed as fuel pump trouble. When the hydraulic top of one convertible refused to operate normally someone wisely suggested trying new fluid in the system. That's all the remedy it required. When crankcase fumes started coming out a rear vent in the valve cover of one reader's car it began to look like need for a complete motor overhaul. This the owner was not inclined to do because of the car's age. A week later he happened to have the oil changed. The vapors vanished. No one had considered the badly diluted condition of the old oil.

Next On The List

Now that we have greatly improved and simplified air conditioning systems on our cars many look forward hopefully to elimination of the exhaust hazard. Already shown before scientific bodies is a catalytic muffler which has the ability to burn exhaust gases, carbon monoxide and hydrocarbons into carbon dioxide and water. A catalyst is an agent that remains unchanged while causing a change in the chemicals to which it is exposed. By cutting down on the amount of carbon monoxide in exhaust gases any such system would greatly lessen the risk of drivers becoming mildly gassed and thus sleepy while at the wheel, especially in winter.

Explaining An Oddity

As many motorists have noticed it often happens that as the time for an oil change nears the oil in the engine burns off at a faster rate. One reader says that even if he adds some new oil near the time for the change he still finds that oil mileage drops. He makes a careful check and wisely tries to avoid short cold runs with the car because they tend to load the crankcase with diluent.

I believe that this action of the oil is the result of its thinning down as it is used. There is constant dilution, and slow loss of oil past the piston rings and out the crankcase vents as vapor. The quality of the oil drops as the oil change mileage approaches, and that causes a drop in oil mileage too.

Mechanic Joe Speaking:

"Another reason why gasoline mileage is down in winter is because many shops adjust ignition timing a little short of maximum advance in order to spare their customers excessive motor ping-pong. This ping-pong is quite apt to be a problem in winter because of the use of high degree thermostats which, while efficient for round-town use in very cold weather and an aid in getting more heat from the car's warming device, may cause the engine to run a bit hot on a milder day and on a long hill. There may also be a marked increase in carbon deposits within the cylinder from so much choking and too many short, cold runs."

Catching Up With Cars

It usually takes a good part of a year to unearth all the little but significant changes in the latest crop of new models, and some owners never know the whole story about their cars. But here are a few of the oddities which you'll find if you poke around under a few of the newer hoods:

There's a solenoid (a sort of electrical clutch) which provides a way to uncouple the compressor for the air conditioning system so that the engine doesn't have to turn over this unit in cold weather. Some of the newer engines do not use gaskets for their spark plugs. One of the deluxe convertibles has a motor equipped with two four-barrel carburetors. The air cleaners on some engines now mount on the side rather than on top.

Split-Second Safety

Some idea of what passes for safety these days can be gleaned from facts about one of the current cars which by reason of a boost in motive power through engine and transmission improvements now takes one-half second less to accelerate from 0 to 27 miles per hour. Even more impressive is the 7/10 second savings in acceleration between 60 and 80 miles per hour.

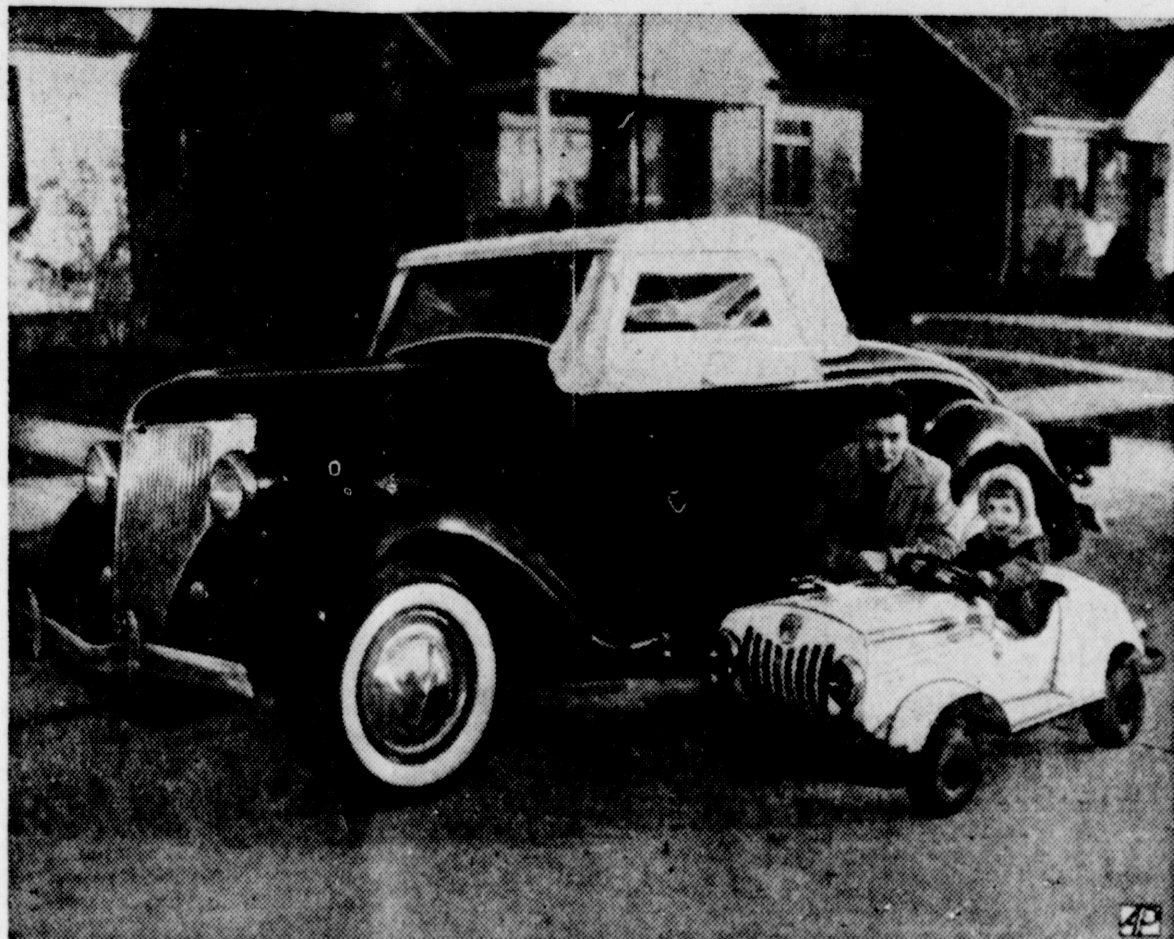

I'll admit that the 7/10 second is important in a high speed pinch, but let's not for a moment lose sight of the less spectacular but still highly effective safety in just merely refraining from passing that jack rabbit ahead.

Rough On Floor Mat

If you are thinking of the day when you may be trading in the present car — and there always comes that day — better make a mental note not to keep your left foot always on the same spot on the floor mat. In these days of the idle left foot there is good chance of wearing a hole right through the mat and leaving one of those blemishes which will make the new buyer think the car has been run many miles more than the odometer says.

Test If You Like It

I don't especially like the idea but some mechanics check for engine efficiency by using the stall test where the car is equipped with a torque converter. The thing is done very much like a test for clutch slippage with a conventional transmission. First the hand brake is firmly set. Then the engine is started. Next the selector lever is moved to the "drive" position.

DADDY, DAUGHTER CARS — Let's, four, sits at wheel of car built by her father, auto mechanic Mike Magera of Detroit, who, in spare time, also turned out roadster alongside.

At this point the engine is accelerated to its top possible speed under the particular circumstances. This speed is known as the stall point, although the engine doesn't stall but refuses to go faster when the accelerator pedal is floored. Assuming that the torque converter has sufficient oil a too low stall point means that the engine needs tuning.

Toward A Better Ride

Engineers are trying hard to make your car ride better, so don't think you're fussy because you sometimes have too great a sense of the road or the behavior of the car when the going isn't too smooth. They are studying some of the special annoyances such as "wheel hop" and the effect of the engine's flexible mountings on the car in general. I note with interest that on convertibles it is found practical to drop pressures a few pounds to lower deflection rate in the tires. Without the benefit of structural stiffness of a steel top convertibles tend to shake more.

What's Your Trouble?

Q. There's a strange rubbing sound under the hood of my car. Have checked the fan belt and the motor mounts. K. L. M.

A. How about the air cleaner? It probably is rubbing against the under side of the hood.

Q. What would cause a decided bucking action in the engine of my car? It happens during the warm-up period, not after the car has been run awhile. Since the trouble never comes back during the day's run I do not think this indicates a sticking valve. There is no suggestion of a "miss." Wm. L. G.

A. This bucking action indicates an over-rich mixture. Check the automatic choke control. It is sluggish opening the choke.

Q. Is it necessary to use a high degree thermostat in the motor in cold weather? H. B.

A. The proper word is "desirable," assuming that the engine is in normal condition and isn't plagued with overheating. By raising the engine's operating temperature gas mileage is better in winter, and there is more warmth from the car heater.

Q. Is it all right to reduce tappet clearance in order to check a bad valve tap? H. H. F.

A. If the clearance is excessive, yes. But the chances are that the noise is from the valve itself or indicates wear on the rocker arm. If you take up too much clearance the valve may not seat tightly when the engine heats up on a hill.

Q. There's a peculiar clanging noise somewhere in the car when I take my foot off the accelerator pedal under certain conditions, especially if the car is on a rough road. T. L.

A. On your car there is very little clearance between the muffler and the frame. A more careful adjustment of the hangers for the muffler and tail pipe, and some insulation, should check this.

Q. Even on a very cold morning the engine of my car starts easily. There is no trouble during the warm-up period, but if I have occasion to stop after driving awhile, or if the engine stalls, I can't get things started again without a lot of cranking. I have been old that there are varnish deposits on the cylinders and pistons, and that when this heats it tends to cause the pistons to bind and thus to slow down cranking speed. K. McN.

A. That's a factor in some cases, but usually the difficulty re-starting a hot engine is merely due to fuel becoming over-vaporized. "Clear" the cylinders by cranking with the throttle wide open. However be sure to take your foot off the accelerator the instant the engine fires.

Q. If an engine is originally equipped with an oil filter of the there any objection to installing a permanent filter with a replaceable cartridge. H. V.

A. The latter type can be used to advantage, but have a mechanic make the change. Mounting and fittings are important here.

Mr. Russell will answer questions regarding the safe care and opera-

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP)—The State Board of Agriculture, governing body of Michigan State College, has officially stepped into the campaign to give the college university status.

A resolution approved by the board declared it would "welcome enactment by the legislature authorizing the name of Michigan State University of Agriculture and Applied Science."

Legislators sympathetic to the proposal are readying a bill authorizing the name change.

Backers declared it would make an ideal "birthday present for the Michigan State 100th anniversary celebration.

WILL QUIZ CON IN MURDER CASE

NEW YORK (AP)—A Sing Sing prisoner named by Herman Schohl will be questioned about the kidnap-for-ransom angle in the mystery slaying of playboy-financier Serge Rubinstein.

Schohl, mild-mannered, 50-year-old rental limousine driver, has told police that the murder of the 46-year-old Rubinstein was a kidnap scheme borrowed from him by underworld characters and "bungled."

Schohl Thursday named Elvano Troiani, 34, as one of two men who plotted with him three years ago to snatch Rubinstein for ransom.

Troiani has been in Sing Sing prison at Ossining, N.Y., since February, 1954, serving 5 to 10 years for a Bayside, Queens, burglary.

Rubinstein was found trussed, gagged and strangled in the master bedroom of his Fifth Avenue mansion last Jan. 27.

The third man assertedly in on Schohl's scheme has not been identified.

DULLES FLYING TO 8-NATION COUNCIL TALK

By WARREN ROGERS JR.
WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles flew toward the Far East Friday with a rough-out plan for an eight-nation military council to coordinate defenses against communism in Southeast Asia.

The blueprint has many details yet to be filled in. It includes four main goals for a conference opening next Wednesday at Bangkok, Thailand:

1. To set up an organization, The Southeast Asia Defense Treaty was signed last Sept. 8 at Manila and since then all eight participating nations have ratified it.

2. To build military security. The treaty area covers all of Southeast Asia and the western Pacific beyond Formosa, including the Indo-China states of Laos, Cambodia and Viet Nam. Each treaty nation is pledged to act "in accordance with its constitutional processes" against armed aggression in this area.

3. To create safeguards against subversion. Just how this is done has not been made clear.

4. To foster economic welfare. Again the outlook is clouded. Earlier talk about an American "Marshall Plan for Asia" or a more modest program of loans and grants has given way to "coordination of existing programs."

Dulles took all these aims into account in his speech at New York Wednesday night. He also cited a fifth:

Different Concept
"The Bangkok conference will enable the free nations of the West and of the East to begin a vital demonstration. They can show that, through association as sovereign nations, they can each help the other to independence, security and well-being."

A working committee of representatives of the eight Manila Pact nations—the United States, the Philippines, Pakistan, Thailand, Britain, France, Australia and New Zealand—has developed a military council concept which does not include any commitment of troops. Thus it differs from the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, which set up a vast military organization in Europe.

Fast Track For Widener Expected

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A drying track that may be "fast" by post time attracted 11 thoroughbreds in the $133,800 mile and a quarter Widener Handicap at Hialeah Park today.

More than 30,000 fans were expected to see the rich race, to be broadcast and televised nationally CBS. Post time is 4:48 p.m., EST, and the winner's share will be $96,000.

QUIZ THREE IN FATAL BLAZE

BAITMORE (AP)—The owner of a clothing firm where six firemen died battling a nine-alarm fire was released early Friday after 8½ hours of questioning by police and arson investigators.

Authorities issued no statement on the interrogation of Herman F. Goldstein and all those involved in the lengthy session could not be reached immediately. They apparently were catching up on some much-needed sleep.

Goldstein's two sons, Leonard and Sidney, also were questioned during the night but not in the same room with their father.

The loss of six firemen in the Wednesday night fire was the worst tragedy in the history of the fire department. Twenty other firemen were injured.

Mayor Thomas D'Alesandro ordered all city departments to aid in a thorough investigation of the fire. State's Atty. Anselm Sodaro canceled a speaking engagement Thursday to help with the probe.

Goldstein, owner of the Tru-fit Clothes Co. store destroyed by the blaze, voluntarily went to headquarters at police request. His sons and two lawyers accompanied him.

WACO, Tex. (AP)—The 36-inch wrecking bar grocer C. T. Dickinson left on his store porch was used by a thief to break in, take cash, groceries and wrecking bar.
